

Sinclair
Broadcasting's
decision to force
their stations to air an anti-Kerry
documentary days
before the election
is an outrage that it is the FCC's
obligation to address. Sinclair
uses the public
airwaves free of charge, and is equally obligated by law to serve the public interest.

The best public interest, at this moment in our history, is equal fairness for both parties on all
media. Large scape corporations should not find it easy to manipulate the
democratic process,
and I call on you to look into this. The public interest is better served by
voices in our own communities and by more substantive
news about issues
that matter.

Sinclair's actions
show why we need to strengthen media
ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license
renewal process
needs to include
public debate and
assure the public interest.

Thank you for your consideration of this issue.
